Stavna Ballet is a Richmond-based company that was founded in 2010 by Artistic Director Shannon Hunter McConville.

Our mission is to captivate, enrich and inspire our communities and audiences through breathtaking artistry that explores the fusion of contemporary movement and the grace of classical ballet.

We will live our mission by creating alluring and exceptional dance performances. We will invest in the community by providing an outlet for local artists to express themselves through the art of dance and by inspiring young minds through engaging and interactive learning experiences.

Sometimes you have to go back to get ahead.

As jobs requiring college degrees continue to increase, investing in your education is more critical than ever. Our degree programs are designed to meet the needs of working professionals, balancing academic rigor with flexibility and value. Students attend part time in the evening at a pace that supports their other life commitments.

As an added value (and surprise to many), our tuition ranks among the most competitive in Richmond, starting at just $465 per semester hour. Plus financial aid is available for most programs.
